

Richard J. Lambert

Senior Vice President
Regional Vice President
Commercial Banking - Utah
Wells Fargo & Co.

Richard (“Rich”) Lambert is a Commercial Banking Leader and S.V.P for the Wells Fargo Middle Market Banking Group’s Southwest Division, with responsibility for managing the Middle Market Banking team in the state of Utah. Rich’s area focuses on the banking needs for middle market and corporate businesses located in the Utah market.

Mr. Lambert joined Wells Fargo in 1994 through the acquisition of First Interstate Bank where he served in the retail bank prior to joining the Commercial/ Middle Market Bank Group in 1997. Mr. Lambert graduated from the Wells Fargo Bank Credit Management Training Program in 2001, and has served as a Relationship Associate, Credit Analyst, a Senior Relationship Manager, and a Regional Team Lead, and the Regional Vice President of Middle Market Banking for Utah prior to his current role as a Commercial Banking Leader.

Mr. Lambert holds a B.A. in Finance from the University of Utah, David Eccles School of Business (graduating class of 1997).

Current/ Past Affiliations:

- World Trade Center Utah, Executive Committee/Board Member, Treasurer
- Utah Foundation, Executive Committee/Board Member
- University of Utah Alumni Board Member, Marketing Chair
- University of Utah Business School Alumni, Board Member
- Red Butte Gardens Advisory Board Member
- Salt Lake Chamber Member and Leadership Utah Alumni
- Boy Scouts of America, Volunteer

A graduate of the University of Utah, he and his wife Sara, along with their two children, reside in Holladay, Utah.